

Kelly Bland, Plaintiff,

v.

1st Texas Health & Life LLC, a Texas Limited Liability Company,

Aaron Hansome, an Individual,

and John Doe,

Defendants.

Case No. 4:24-cv-01022

DEFENDANT AARON HANSOME'S SUBMISSION OF BUSINESS COMPLIANCE DOCUMENTS

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE REED C. O'CONNOR:

As part of my personal defense in the above-referenced matter, I respectfully submit the following exhibits to demonstrate the compliance of 1st Texas Health & Life LLC with applicable state requirements. These documents provide context for the allegations raised and support the position that both the company and I, as an individual, have acted in good faith and in accordance with legal obligations.

NOTE REGARDING LEGAL REPRESENTATION:

I have made every effort to secure legal representation for this matter. I have spoken to no fewer than five attorneys, most of whom declined to take the case due to its complexity. One attorney agreed to represent me but quoted a fee of $10,000—an amount my family cannot afford at this time. As a result, I am representing myself, pro se, and have worked diligently to prepare a robust defense and counterclaim to the best of my ability.

RE: 1st Texas Health & Life LLC

File Number: 804830666

It has been our pleasure to file the certificate of formation and issue the enclosed certificate of filing evidencing the existence of the newly created domestic limited liability company (llc).

Unless exempted, the entity formed is subject to state tax laws, including franchise tax laws. Shortly, the Comptroller of Public Accounts will be contacting the entity at its registered office for information that will assist the Comptroller in setting up the franchise tax account for the entity. Information about franchise tax, and contact information for the Comptroller's office, is available on their web site at <https://window.state.tx.us/taxinfo/franchise/index.html>.

The entity formed does not file annual reports with the Secretary of State. Documents will be filed with the Secretary of State if the entity needs to amend one of the provisions in its certificate of formation. It is important for the entity to continuously maintain a registered agent and office in Texas. Failure to maintain an agent or office or file a change to the information in Texas may result in the involuntary termination of the entity.

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 92-1333358. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

Taxpayers request an EIN for their business. Some taxpayers receive CP575 notices when another person has stolen their identity and are opening a business using their information. If you did not apply for this EIN, please contact us at the phone number or address listed on the top of this notice.

When filing tax documents, making payments, or replying to any related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and does not need to file Form 8832.
